

3D PRINTING WORKSHOP

IEEE Student Branch College of Engineering Karunagapally in association with Industry Applications Society conducted a workshop on 3-D printing. While some of the attendees seemed a bit familiarized with the working, others were absolutely flabbergasted. They were to sketch random objects of their own choice which made them even more curious of their own explorative minds and helped them realise the importance of technical development.

